

YOUNG APPALACHIAN MUSICIANS

TAM YAM Camp Registration 2023

The Traditional Arts and Music, TAM YAM Camp will be held at The Holly Springs Center, 120 Holly Springs School Rd in Pickens, July 10-14th and/or July 17-21. The camp is open to ALL (from ANYWHERE) rising 3rd-9th graders. In the mornings instruction is offered from local musicians in the traditional instrument of their choice (fiddle, mandolin, guitar, and banjo—all levels). Afternoons will be spent doing many of these activities: nature activities, clogging/square dancing, water activities, folk singing, jug band, instrument making, Appalachian cooking, pottery, jewelry-making, dulcimer, and more. Since camp is located at the beautiful Holly Springs Center in Northern Pickens County, there will be excellent access to classes in their School of Mountain Arts, Additionally campers will be offered Classes in Academic Enrichment for one hour each day (CAREs time). These include a blend of STEM activities, local history, and book/writing activities.

Camp will cost according to the “lunch status” of the participants: Paid lunch-$210/week, Reduced lunch-$140/wk, Free lunch-$100/wk. If students aren’t in a public school, they’ll need to pay “Paid Lunch” rate. Students can bring their own instruments or rent the instruments at camp for a nominal fee. We’ll be offering scholarships in the next few weeks. Parents must provide transportation each day but breakfast and lunch will be provided, if desired. Camp will run 8:30-4 but provides extended care from 7:30-8:30 and/or 4-5:30 for an extra fee. Campers will be chosen first-come, first-serve and we ask that you send ½ the fee and the registration form by May 19. Even if you can’t send the registration fee yet, please email/send registration info to Pauline (below) very soon as we have a limited number of spaces. Checks should be made to POSAM and money may be given to the YAM Program Director at any YAM school/site/program or sent to Betty McDaniel, Director, 792 Holly Springs Sch. Rd, Pickens, SC, 29671. The balance of the money will be due June 30. If you have questions or concerns, contact Pauline at blackspm1@outlook.com or Betty at 864-878-4257.
